AGENDA

- Approval of Agenda and Minutes
 - Dominique called the meeting to order at 11:04.
- Guest Speaker(s):
 - There was no guest speaker.
- Unfinished/New Business
 - ACPD Resolution Student Org Update
 - Dominique inquired as to the various SGAs communication about the ACPD resolution
 - In response, Olivia mentioned that she has reached out to two student orgs about the ACPD. She asked if those orgs wanted to bring more people along but is waiting to hear back. She also reached out to another org, only to find that that particular organization disbanded. However, the leader communicated that she would spread the word, and attempt to get other organizations involved.

- Mariam mentioned that she communicated to the CCD SGA regarding the resolution. She also reached out to Teagan, a student life office rep, about reaching student orgs.
 - Kathryn reached out to the advisors, of Trio, Dreamers, and (third thing), but is waiting to hear back. She stated she would communicate the response to Mariam.
 - ABOD Position Update
 - Dominique brought up the ABOD position update. She stated that Mariam will be the ABOD representative going forward.
 - Angela stated that Taylor had some eligibility issues and can no longer serve on ABOD or SACAB.
 - Minute Taking
 - Angela
 - Olivia Motioned to allow Taylor to be retained as the SACAB minute taker, at a rate not to exceed $15/hour. Mariam seconded. The motion passed unanimously.
 - ACPD CAB Update
- Position Announcements
 - SGA
 - Birungi had no updates for the MSU SGA, but requested that SACAB members send communication
 - Olivia stated that CU Denver is getting back to the swing of things. They heard from New ERA, a political organization. The SGA is looking into how they can participate in more legislative action—letters, the like.
 - Mariam communicated that the CCD SGA met with their new president, and
 - ABOD
 - PODSOC
 - FSAC
 - SCP
 - Mariam mentioned the coordination and plans for a plastic straw program
 - Reprogramming Task Force
 - Olivia mentioned it was their first meeting, and that there wasn't much to report yet.
 - Public Relations
 - Campus Update: Angela LeValley
 - No updates, other than traffic in Tivoli has been a little heavier than last semester.
 - She reminded everyone that today (29 Jan) is the last day to opt-in to the RTD pass. She did mention that the Tivoli bookstore is doing a 25% discount on school and art supplies. She mentioned that the bookstore continues to have flash sales; she recommended following the Tivoli bookstore on social media to find ongoing deals and promotions.
- Public Comment
 - X followed up with SACAB regarding the ACPD body Cam resolution. He inquired as to when SACAB would bring in BIPOC students for input. The BIPOC resolution was brought into the Metro State. He stated that he would love to see the BIPOC resolution that the various SGAs have drafted in order to better coordinate. He raised the question: "What does defunding the police look like? What does it look like going forward". He stated he is curious to see what SACAB's ACPD resolution looks like, given they have been working on it for months. He stated that if he was being honest, knowing he cannot speak for all BIPOC student, but that most students are working 2-3 jobs, and therefore might not be able to meet during business hours in order to contribute to the SACAB ACPD resolution. He suggested that SACAB could conduct a survey in order to better reflect student's input for the ACPD. This could help separate the interests of Faculty, students, etc. He stated he would like a formal request to hear from BIPOC students who have drafted parts of the resolution. He finished by

- Dominique requested Kathryn Martinez, Chair of the Institute for Gender Care and Advocacy, and Nastasia . Another good place is going to the department's websites.
- Dominique mentioned that the ACPD resolution in regard to bodycams is something she is quite passionate about. She mentioned that the resolution may be taking longer, because earlier, SACAB maybe jumped the gun a little, and now wants to incorporate student feedback.
- Olivia thanked X for being in the meeting. Olivia clarified that the resolution that X referenced throughout his communication this meeting was the Safer Spaces Resolution. She inquired if X thought the best way to communicate about the S.S. Resolution is to have the other orgs come directly to SACAB.
- X stated that he did think that it was best, because SACAB is recorded and a matter of public record. That way, there would be a public record of the meeting.
- Cassy mentioned that x mentioned a couple different resolutions and requested that X clarify which resolutions are which.
- X clarified that the Safer Spaces Resolution is the same as the "BIPOC" resolution, and that the safer spaces resolution became known as the "BIPOC" resolution

□ Adjournment

- Dominique motioned to adjourn the meeting at 11:50. Olivia
